Employees hired on the same day will have their seniority order determined by the spelling of their last name, or where the last name is the same, by their first name. Name changes of any kind will not disrupt the order of seniority. The employee whose name appears first in alphabetical order shall be the employee deemed to have more seniority. - 7.02 The Employer shall maintain a Seniority List showing the date upon which each employee's service commenced. An up-to-date Seniority List shall be sent to the Union in January of each year. The Union will have thirty (30) days to request corrections to the information provided.

- (a) During the probationary period, such employee shall be entitled to all rights and benefits of this Agreement. The employment of such employees may be terminated at any time during the probationary period without recourse to the grievance procedure, provided such termination is not discriminatory, arbitrary or in bad faith. After completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be effective from the original date of employment.
 - (b) During the probationary period, the Employer shall conduct a formal review of the newly hired employee's performance within seven (7) working days of the completion of six (6) weeks employment or the equivalent number of hours in the case of Regular Part-Time/Part-Time Employees.
- Such review shall be conducted by the appropriate Department Manager or designate. The employee shall be provided with a written copy of the review at that time. Follow up reviews will be conducted as deemed necessary by the appropriate Department Manager.

 - (iii) if the employee returns to the Bargaining Unit during or at the end of the three (3) calendar month period, the employee shall be placed in the position previously held by the employee.

ARTICLE 8 – PROMOTIONS AND VACANCIES

8.01 When the Employer determines that a vacancy is to be filled or a new position is to be created within any given Facility, it shall be conspicuously posted bargaining unit wide for a period of seven (7) calendar days in mutually acceptable locations; however, the employer is not precluded from concurrently advertising externally. In addition, the Employer shall be at liberty to immediately fill the position temporarily; such temporary vacancies shall be filled by the next most senior employee in the section concerned in that Department, if they so desire, providing that the employee has the required qualifications and/or experience for that position.

Such notices of vacancies shall contain at least the following information:

- 8.02 The Parties agree that advancement and opportunity for promotion should increase with seniority and as such, the Employer will continue its practice of considering internal applicants prior to external applicants. The Parties further recognize the obligations of the Employer to provide, where possible, training and development opportunities, in accordance with its policy as amended from time to time, and to employees to follow through on such training and development opportunities and employee's interest in training initiatives to assist in their career enhancement. In the event of conflicts for training opportunities seniority will govern the order of training.
- 8.03 In assessing the required qualifications of applicants, the Employer shall consider such individual's abilities, skills, experience, and knowledge required for the vacant position. In making appointments to vacant positions within the Bargaining Unit, it is agreed that where the required qualifications of two or more applicants are approximately equal, seniority shall govern.
- 8.04 A promoted or transferred employee shall serve a three (3) calendar month trial period. A promoted or transferred employee, at their option or at the decision of the Employer, may be returned to their former position during the trial period.
- 8.05 Following completion of the initial probation/trial period a newly hired, promoted or transferred employee will not be eligible for consideration for a subsequent position or transfer until following completion of nine (9) calendar months in their new position, unless otherwise agreed by the Employer.
- 8.06 (a) When assigned by management or their supervisor, an employee who temporarily substitutes in a higher paying position, shall receive the higher rate of pay for those hours worked.
- (b) When an employee is temporarily assigned by their supervisor to a position paying a lower rate of pay, the employee's rate of pay shall not be reduced.

- (c) Consideration shall be given to an employee acting in a temporary capacity in a management or supervisory position. Compensation will be determined on a case-by-case basis when the employee is offered the acting position.
 - (d) An employee working at a Facility outside of Fort McMurray who is required to perform duties of more than one classification as outlined in Schedule A will receive the rate of pay for the highest classification performed.
- 8.07 The Employer agrees to compile job descriptions for all positions within the Bargaining Unit and to present these job descriptions to incumbents and the Union as they are completed. Any revisions to existing job descriptions will be provided to incumbents and the Union as and when any such revisions occur.
- 8.08 The Employer will provide notice to the Union of terminations, new hires, lay-offs, transfers and posting of vacancies on a weekly basis.
- 8.09 Where it is necessary for an employee's position, the Employer will bear the costs of mandatory training and recertification. Employees will complete mandatory training and recertification on paid work time.
- 8.10 Where it is necessary for an employee's position, the Employer will bear the cost of the criminal record check and/or vulnerable sector screening, including recertification. For clarity, potential employees not yet hired will provide a criminal record check and/or vulnerable screening at their own cost, prior to commencing employment. The Employer will determine the regularity of having the record checks and screenings recertified.

ARTICLE 9 – LAYOFFS AND RECALLS

9.01 Layoff Defined

A layoff shall be defined as a temporary severance of the work employment relationship, or a permanent reduction of the workforce.

9.02 Role of Seniority in Layoffs

In the event of a layoff, employees shall be retained in the order of their seniority subject to the job groupings in Schedule A provided they have the required qualifications to fill the positions available.

9.03 Advance Notice of Layoff

In the case of layoff, the Employer shall notify all permanent employees who are subject to laid off thirty (30) calendar days prior to the effective date of layoff. If the employee, in such case, has not had the opportunity to work thirty (30) calendar days after notice of layoff, the employee shall be paid in lieu of work for that part of thirty (30) calendar days during which work was not made available.

9.04 Layoff Procedure

A permanent employee subject to layoff will be placed using the following procedures in the order set out below:

- (a) An employee will first be offered any available permanent vacancy for which the employee has the required qualifications. The employee will have a maximum of seven (7) calendar days to accept or reject such vacancy. If the employee accepts the vacancy and the hourly rate is lower in that vacant position, the employee's hourly rate will be maintained while the employee remains in that vacant position for a period of one (1) calendar year.
- (b) If there are no vacancies available for which the employee has the required qualifications, or if available, the employee does not accept the vacancy and the Employer transfers or demotes the employee pursuant to Clause 9.05, the employee's hourly rate of pay will be maintained so long as the employee remains in the position to which the employee was transferred or demoted. The employee will not receive any further negotiated wage increases until the hourly rate of pay of the new position equals or surpasses the hourly rate of pay of their previous position.
- (c) If there are no vacancies for which the employee has the required qualifications, or if available, the employee does not accept the vacancy and the Employer does not exercise its right under Clause 9.05, the employee may select a permanent position held by a less senior employee on the seniority list if they have the required qualifications.
- (d) This process will continue in order of seniority until each permanent employee subject to layoff obtains a position for which they are qualified or it is determined there are no positions available for which the employee is qualified. If the employee does not select a position for which they are qualified, the employee shall be laid off.
- (e) If the employee is not placed through the above procedures, the employee shall be laid off pursuant to Clause 9.03.
- (f) If an employee is placed through any of the above procedures, the posting provisions under Clause 8.01 will not apply.
- (g) Term Employees in the same work area and who spend the majority of their time performing the same work as the employee subject to layoff will be terminated before the permanent employee is laid off
- (h) The procedures set out above in (a) through (g) shall be completed within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of notice of layoff.
- (i) If there is any conflict between this procedure and that set out in the recall procedures of Clause 9.07, it shall be determined on the basis of the most senior qualified employee in the Job Grouping

- (j) Regular Full-Time Employees, Regular Part-Time Employees, and Part-Time Employees who have been notified by the Employer, pursuant to Clause 9.03 of this Collective Agreement that the employee is to be laid off, may opt to accept severance pay as provided in Schedule D in lieu of exercising the employee's the rights under the provisions of Article 9.
- 9.05 The Employer maintains the right to transfer or demote an employee subject to layoff to another position where the employee has the required qualifications to fill the position, with due regard for the provisions of seniority as provided for in this Collective Agreement.
- 9.06 In order that the operations of the Union will not become disorganized when layoffs are made, members of the Local Executive Board and Chief Steward shall be the last persons laid off during their term of office.
- 9.07 The most senior employee laid off who has the required qualifications will be the first recalled to a permanent position, provided the employee has retained accrued seniority.
 - (a) An employee who refuses to accept a position that is relatively equivalent to the position the employee held prior to layoff, or fails to report within fourteen (14) calendar days of the date the position was offered to them, the employee will be struck from the recall list and all obligations towards the employee shall end.
 - (b) An employee who is laid off is responsible for advising the Human Resources Department, in writing, of any change of address or telephone number.
 - (c) Should the Employer be unable to contact a laid off employee by telephone within forty-eight (48) hours of the first attempt to contact the employee, the next laid off employee will be contacted and offered the position. The first employee will be contacted by registered mail. Should the employee fail to contact the Human Resources Department within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the letter, or should the employee's address no longer be valid, the employee will be struck from the recall list, and all obligations towards the employee shall end.
- 9.08 No permanent employees shall be hired until those laid off who have the required qualifications to fill the positions available have been given the opportunity of recall. A laid off permanent employee shall be eligible to be recalled to a permanent position for a period of twelve (12) months. Permanent employees on layoff shall be eligible for recall to nonpermanent positions in accordance with the following:
 - (a) The employee has the required qualifications to fill the non-permanent position.
 - (b) Any employee in a non-permanent position shall not accrue seniority for such service.
 - (c) There shall be no adjustment to the twelve (12) months recall period due to any non-permanent employment.

- (d) If no permanent employment is available after twelve (12) months of layoff from the employee's permanent position, the employee shall be removed from the recall list. The employee, however, may continue to be offered non-permanent employment and may apply on job opportunities.

ARTICLE 10 – HOURS OF WORK

- 10.01 The work week shall commence on the first shift on Friday, and end with the last shift on the following Thursday.
- 10.02 The Employer operates Facilities that are open up to fifty-two (52) weeks of the year. Employees should be aware that they may be required to work various shifts throughout the days and weeks and hours of the day in accordance with posted departmental schedules.

- (b) An employee selected by the Union Executive or Union membership to attend Union conventions, seminars, meetings, or training sessions shall be granted leave of absence. Leave of absence for these events shall be requested at least ten (10) working days in advance to the Employer. If more than one (1) employee is selected from the same classification or area, where their absence may result in an area being unable to provide service, the Union will obtain approval for the leave from the Employer. Such leave shall not be unreasonably withheld.

23.03 Upon application the Employer shall agree to allow leave of absence for full-time duties with the CUPE National Organization for up to one (1) year. Thirty (30) days' notice before commencement of such full-time duties and thirty (30) days' notice before return to work shall be provided. The Employer agrees to provide an equivalent paid position upon return of such a person.

23.04 The notice from the Union requesting the leave under Clause 23.02 (a) and (b) shall specify the date the leave of absence is to commence and end, the hours of pay and benefits that the Employer is to pay the employee during the leave. Re: Employee Membership Privileges

Recognizing the importance of ONE Team actively participating in the features, amenities and programs within the RRC, the Employer agrees to continue the practice of issuing a credit for membership to all Facilities under the Regional Recreation Corporation of Wood Buffalo (RRC).

Annual Single Membership for Full-Time Employees will be made available on a year to year basis. Should an employee decide to apply their Single Membership credit towards a Family Membership, the Employer will provide an additional fifty percent (50%) credit of the difference in cost, at the prevailing annual rates.

Regular Part-Time/Part-Time Employees will be eligible for the above credit for full-time employees, based on seventy percent (70%) of the Annual Adult Single Membership, and thereafter on a year to year basis. As with Full-Time Employees, at the employee's discretion, this credit may be applied to a family Membership package.

Should an employee leave the service of the Employer they will be reimbursed a pro-rated amount of the family membership that the employee paid for.

All employees will also be awarded a nontransferable discount for a single golf membership in accordance with RRC's practice as follows:

Full-Time Employees, seventy percent (70%) credit for one of four Membership options, 10 Golf Passes or 20 Driving Range passes.

Regular Part-Time/Part-Time Employees, seventy percent (70%) credit for one of four Membership options.

The above noted memberships will hold no cash value and will not be eligible for a refund or exchange. Upon termination of employment, the employee will become ineligible for the above membership rights.

The above mentioned credits are subject to review by RRC, and following any decision to change the above practice, employees on staff and the Union, will be given thirty (30) days' notice if these credits are to be adjusted, decreased or eliminated. Newly hired employees will be governed by the terms in place at their time of hire.

Re: Recognition Bonus

RRC recognizes the contribution our ONE Team plays in providing premium customer service to our guests. Our Team members are not just responsible for delivering our exceptional experience but are the key to our many successes across the entire organization. It is important that each employee is aware of their ability to impact the overall success of the Corporation.

In that regard the Employer will allocate eighty-five (85%) percent of event driven gratuities earned in the Hospitality Department to those Bargaining Unit employees who work such events, based on actual hours worked per event. Such gratuities will be paid monthly, on employees' pay voucher, for the previous month's events.

Fifteen (15%) percent such event driven gratuity will be allocated to a "recognition bonus account" which will be divided equally among all other Bargaining Unit employees, based on hours worked, and paid on an annual basis. Employees on staff as of the date of payment and who have at least six (6) months of service as at December 31, of the event year, will be paid in February of each year their eligible portion of the hosted events over the January 1 to December 31 period of the previous business year.

This change in practice is introduced to emphasize the impact of each individual on the overall experience delivered by ONE Team. It is the ability to perform as one aligned team that will maximize the value of this benefit to the employee.
